Orange County Library System celebrates return of Local Wanderer with limited edition lapel pin

After a temporary hiatus due to COVID-19, Orange County's award-winning culture pass program, Local Wanderer is once again available for use by library customers. The program returns in a limited capacity with residents able to use their library card to check out free admission to three local cultural venues: Central Florida Zoo & Botanical Gardens, Orange County Regional History Center and Mennello Museum of American Art.

Since the program's launch in August of 2019, customers have used Local Wanderer to check out more than 2,400 free admissions, the total value of which exceeds $27,000, to the program's fourteen partner organizations.

To celebrate the return of the much beloved program, Orange County Library System has announced a limited-edition lapel pin created in partnership with Secret Society Goods. The pin is available for purchase at the library's gift shop, Gifts & Greetings located on the first floor of Orlando Public Library (101 E. Central Blvd.) or online at ocls.info/shop. The pin retails for $10 and all proceeds support the Friends of the Orange County Library System, which underwrites the ticketing system for Local Wanderer.
