Library to Kick Off 100 Year Celebration with a Special Announcement and Ribbon-Cutting Ceremony

WHAT: Orange County Library System hosts a kickoff event to mark the start of its 100 Year Celebration in 2023. The kickoff event will begin with a ribbon cutting and rededication ceremony of the library to the community at 10:30 a.m., with remarks from elected officials and an exciting announcement from the president of the Sorosis of Orlando Women's Club and Library Director Steve Powell. Live music from Z Street Speakeasy Band begins at noon. Other festivities include a virtual reality tour of the original Albertson Public Library, non-alcoholic craft cocktail refreshments from local spirit-free speakeasy The Bandbox. Storytimes, crafts and activities will take place throughout the day.

Library representatives and community members will be available for comment or interviews immediately following the ribbon cutting.

WHEN: Saturday, January 7, 2023, 10:30 a.m.

WHERE: Orlando Public Library
101 E Central Blvd, Orlando, FL 32801
